REPLY BY DISGUSTED

To Editor, Chauvin Chronicle:

In a recent issue of the Chronicle there appeared a letter from an Edgerton correspondent, purorting to be a reply to Disgusted.

I say purporting advisedly, in that as an answer it looked as if the gentlman was barking up the wrong tree. He makes no effort to answer the plain questions viz: "Did Mr. Spencer really believe in establising a precedent which favors the policy of side stepping the existant law to please a few of the voters in his constituency?" Or was it through fear of the recall that he sponsored that petition? Instead he betrayed the weakness of his stand by trying to draw the red herring of the iniquities of the War hoping thereby to divert public notice from the fact that Disgusted's question concerned abuse of alien citizens as little as it concerned the entrance into Canada of Somebody or other's pet rabits! Of course this is but another evidence of the sidestepping tactics of the average U.F.A. and quite to be expected, as were also the maledictions on all outside his class with which your correspondent opened fire. But in the meantime the question has been answered by Mr. Spences himself in his address to the osses" of his constituency. ns to doing it, and more than that, hesays "He'd do it again!" That is conclusive enough even if the weak bravado of the confession gives some of us long long thoughts.

Is this the form of backbone that H. W. Wood was boasting about when he called them his 12 apostles and announced there wasn't a Judas amongst them?" If so, we dont think mucr of H. W. Wood's taste in backbone. A jelly fish could do better than that!

That point being settled, we come to the place where the Edgerton writer complains that "It is hard to understand why Mr. Spencer's enemies should call him "boss controll-That's easy! Can it be that the gentleman is not yet versed in the dogmas of his own party platform?"

Let me refresh his memory, with a few of them-; "Our organization is continuously in authority and while through it we formulate declarations of principles, or a so called platform other, outside of their own view point these are at all times, subject to more than was quite anticipated by change by the organization" (note Premier Greenfield when in an ad- surface. For if further proof is needed of the power of the bosses we have H. W. Wood boasting every now and again to Calgary and Edmonton audiences that the big difference between his group idea and the old party lies in the fact that the "top" is now ruled from the "bottom." Dr. Leslie C. Cox of Edmonton was admitted to the Alberta bar Monday morning by his Honor Mr. Justice Simmons. Dr. Cox was presented to his honor by C. C. McCaul, K.C.

Mr. McCaul in presenting Dr. Cox stated that he had known Dr. Cox for some time and in his opinion there was no doubt a good future ahead of him in the law practice. The educational attainments of Dr. Cox before entering upon the study of the law were stressed by the speaker.

Mr. Justice Simmons highly commented Dr. Cox for taking such a high standing academically before entering into the study fo law and hoped that he would do his best to uphold the standards of the profession in every respect.

Dr. Cox was born at Bowmanville Ont., and graduated from Toronto University, with B.A., degree in 1913. From 1913 to 1917, was an Edmond Law Rogers fellow in the John Hopkins University, taking the degree of Dector of Philosophy in classics in Ffor 1917 to 1919 he was a lecturer in Latin at the University of Hamilin St. Paul, Minn. At any rate it is an unkind insinuation, which hits both top and bottem equally, and one of these days when the U.F. member sets up his individual thinking machinery again the U.F. leader will doubtless pay for it witr his head. But in the meantime whatever his estimate of the ability of the "bottoms" legislative events would seen to indicate that all unwittingly he sized up the need in the elected representatives of "intelligent guidance" from some source or government members "We have got the cream, You, the skim milk, and PAEONY, A family of perennial herbaceous plants which find a favored place in most of the important gardens in Great Britain and are fast becoming a general favorit in Canada. They produce numerous large and beautiful flowers in a great variety of shades and colors from deep crimson to delicate pink, and the foliage is also very attractive. They grow from two to four feet high, have a bush habit of growth and require a considerable space.

The cultivation is simple and they will grow well in any ordinary soil but for best results they require a deep rich loam, deeply dug with a lib eral supply of well rotted manure added. Roots should be obtained in the fall and planted in clumps of from each way, not later than October. In planting keep the crown of root not less than four inches below the well ot of the ground.

Merton School Fair

The annual Merton School Fair was held at Winona School on Labor Day, Regular meeting of the Council held last, and although threshing was in full swing, a large and interested crowd of pupils and parents were present. The seven schools in the Association put up a remarkable number of exhibits all of ,which showed an improvement over last year. The frost in June hit the vegetable section very hard, but the exhibit was a splendid one for all that. Sefton Park carried off the first prize in the inter-school competition. Letters To The Editor

To do so, would merely be playing fair to the branch union, or local which sent him, and which pays his expenses as delegate. But with an M. P. even (one of the group variety) the case is, of necessity different Seeing that down at Ottawa there is no official recognition of this group nonsense, and the levy for sessional indemnities is therefore made on all the people in the constituency, (not merely the select few who are allowed to have a hand in nominating him, and in guiding him "intelligently (great word that) afterwards!) This being so the average person just naturally expects to get at least a little for his money !- Besides does not one of the planks of the U.F. Platform demand that there should be equal rights to all, and special priveleges to none? Of course the intrusion of the group idea, turns the Equal rights part of it into a screaming farce, and what we would prefer really would be for Mr. Spencer to be straight for ward down at Ottawa and tell them the limit of his powers, then we could not be held responsible for his "peculiaraties in regard to that petition. the provincial election publicly announcing himself as 100 per cent behind the provincial brother elected on a strictly class platform. But when his own turn came to take the stump, strange to say he wasn't so strong on butting forward the class part of the platform. Neither did he mention while asking the votes of all and sundry, that he felt it his duty to tell them that no matter whose votes put him in power, he was only responsible for his acts to a group convention, while as regards the paying of his sessional indemnity probably he forogt all about anything so mundane as that! It's a way our U.F. legislators have, you may have noticed But then after the tumult and the shouting was over, and the count was overwhelmingly U.F.A. Mr. Spencer evidently came back to the 'group' fold, for we have Leader Wood counting heads and calling them his chosen twelve, and boasting there wasn't a Judas among them! That is to say they were all going down to Ottawa pledged to the group idea, as formulated in the provincial platform, Not o the original Farmers' platform known as the Progressive or open door policy. If we mistake not Mr. Spencer also declared himself behind Wood and his ideas versus Crerar and his, about the time of the first caucus. It's a 'hard life! and uneasy lies the head of the M.P. who tries to put across the theories of the Missouri mesmerist! Meanwhile it is rather interesting to read what the New York Times has to say about tris group idea which has tickled the fancy of the Western U.F.'s. Assuredly if any country knows the price of allowing groups- bosses,- Tammany rings and the political cankers to get a hold on its economic and political its comment:

"There are obviously certain things for the electors to drive at directly. They must seek to restore the authority of party, and to raise the level of intelligence among members of congress. They must fight government by groups, as the root of growing property of evils. In a word, they must endeavor A. E. KEITH to elect a congress in which there
